1. An advanced Communist Party training school is located at Laufberggasse 12, Vienna II, in a villa placed at the disposal of the Austrian Communist Party by the Soviet Army. Each course in the school lasts from four to eight weeks and usually has a minimum of twenty students. More than 250 persons have already been graduated, including such prominent PCoJ leaders as Otto Brischack and Fritz Weissenback. Students are strictly forbidden to disclose either the fact of their attendance at this school or the nature of the instruction given.
2. The employees of the school include the following:
 - Mausch, Johann, apparently the building superintendent. Born 5 January 1923 in Vienna; single; lives at Grassberggasse 4/7, Vienna III; Communist Party member.
 - Neuhäuser, Helmut, assistant to the school management. Born 10 September 1925 in Vienna; single; lives at Ferrogasse 8, Vienna XVIII.
 - Kristner, Emma, secretary. Born 21 April 1922 in Vienna; lives with husband, Johann, at Voltgasse 28, Vienna XII.
3. Communist political training schools have also been reported at Martinstrasse 92, Vienna XVIII, and in Kirchschlag, in the Muehlviertel of Upper Austria.
